

SALARIED GP POST

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a 6-8 session GP to join our team, as a salaried GP, in the Georgian market town of Farnham with good local schools and excellent transport links to London. Job share considered.

We are a friendly and forward-thinking family practice. We are looking for a highly motivated, enthusiastic, and committed GP to take an active role within our team, working collaboratively with other surgeries in Farnham. We are supportive and innovative. Specialist interests are encouraged. Training and educational events available locally. Modern, purpose-built premises with combined list size of 17,500. Competitive remuneration package.
